After the boat trip, you make your own way back to the pier.

Day 3 (M) Ghent | Bruges | City tour incl. transfer approx. 4.5 h € 50.00

In the morning we offer you the opportunity to discover Bruges, also known as the Venice of the North, on a city tour. At dusk, the charming city of Ghent will enchant you on this tour. After a short transfer your guide will take you on a stroll through the historic city centre and you will learn interesting facts about the centuries-old buildings. Architectural accents, streets, monuments and squares are artfully enveloped in an enchanting atmosphere, transforming Ghent into a magical evening landscape of light and shadow.

Day 5 (M) Antwerp | City tour with transfer approx. 3 h € 50.00

You will spend the first day of the new year exploring the diamond city of Antwerp. Antwerp is a city on a human scale: most of the sights are within walking distance of each other. A walk through the city is therefore the best way to get to know Antwerp. The metropolis on the Scheldt is also the hometown of Rubens, Van Dyck, Plantin and Moretus and boasts one of the largest Gothic cathedrals in the world. During your tour, which begins with a short transfer from the ship to the city centre, you will walk around some of the most important sights: Guild Houses, the Brabo Fountain, the Cathedral of Our Lady (exterior visit) and the romantic Vlaeykensgang.

Day 6 (M) Nijmegen | City tour approx. 2 h €15.00

In the morning, the MS SE-MANON reaches the cosy Hanseatic city of Nijmegen. At more than 2000 years old, Nijmegen is the oldest city in Holland and not only impresses with its cosy and lively atmosphere, but also with its enchanting historic buildings, centuries-old squares and the oldest shopping street in Holland: the Lange Hezelstraat. This guided city walk is the perfect way to take a journey through many years of the past.

This tour starts and ends at the jetty.
